Love one another as I have loved you.

Jesus laid down his life for love. Jesus offers himself as the model of love, willing to go so far as to suffer danger and death to express love. Today's readings are all about the message to love and be loved. God loves everybody and is asking us to show love even to our enemies, reaching out to vulnerable people and step past our comfort zone. We then bring in solidarity within our community. We become examples of Christ, we not only preach but we show as an example. We see Christ in everyday lives – our Mothers & Fathers, our frontline health care workers, nurses and doctors treating Covid patients, our pastoral leaders and charity leaders and their volunteers. Everything they do, they do for love and we must also be receptive to all these beautiful actions. Happy Mothers Day!

National count on attendances in church.

The Australian Catholic Bishops Conference has requested that all churches complete a national count of attendance at mass for all the weekends in the month of May. The first 2 weekends, we will require a total count, 3rd week will be asking for number of male & female in the congregation and on the 4th week will be asked for age range of attendees. During the mass, we will ask the alter servers, acolytes or collector to do the count. This also includes Masses in other languages. Thank you for your cooperation.

*We welcome into the community and a new life in Christ - Antonio, Joshua & Rocky Norman
who will be Baptised in our Church this weekend.
Congratulations and may God Bless the family and friends.*

God's Helpers

God could not be in every place
With loving hands to help erase
The teardrops from each baby's face,
And so He thought of mother.
He could not send us here alone
And leave us to a fate unknown;
Without providing for His own,
The outstretched arms of mother.
God could not watch us night and day
And kneel beside our crib to pray,
Or kiss our little aches away;
And so He sent us mother.
And when our childhood days began,
He simply could not take command.
That's why He placed our tiny hand
Securely into mother's.
The days of youth slipped quickly by,
Life's sun rose higher in the sky.
Full grown were we, yet ever nigh
To love us still, was mother.
And when life's span of years shall end,
I know that God will gladly send,
To welcome home her child again,
That ever-faithful mother.

-- George W. Wiseman

Happy Mothers day to all Mothers in our Parish. We pray that your day is filled with Love, gratitude, joy and laughter. God himself fully appreciates the influences of a mother in the moulding of the character in her child/children. May you receive many blessings and praise this Mothers' Day.
