A message from the Catholic Archdiocese of Sydney Safeguarding Office. Abuse is a crime.

The appropriate people to deal with a crime are the police. If you -or anyone you know- have been abused, please contact the police. Alternatively, you can contact the Safeguarding and Ministerial Integrity Office at (02) 9390 5810 or safeguardingenquiries@sydneycatholic.org. You may also want to speak to your Parish Priest who will be able to provide support and guidance. The Archdiocese has a legal obligation to report crimes to police.

26th Sunday in Ordinary Time
25th September 2022 ~ YEAR C

MIGRANT AND REFUGEE SUNDAY

Entrance Antiphon: All that you have done to us, O Lord, you have done with true judgment, for we have sinned against you and not obeyed your commandments. But give glory to your name and deal with us according to the bounty of your mercy.

First Reading: Amos 6:1, 4-7

Response: Praise the Lord, my soul!

Second Reading: Timothy 6:11-16

Gospel Acclamation: Alleluia, alleluia! Jesus Christ was rich but he became poor, to make you rich out of his poverty. Alleluia!

Gospel: Luke 16:19-31

Communion Antiphon: Remember your word to your servant, O Lord, by which you have given me hope. This is my comfort when I am brought low.

The Great Reversal.

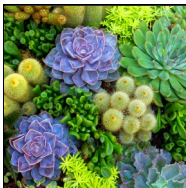

In the readings today, Christians are called to be part of God's Great Reversal, to realign and to live differently. The passage from Amos, from around the 8th Century BC paints a picture of wealthy and uncaring citizens. They live in luxury while "the ruin of Joseph" occurs all around them. Inevitably, they will be taken away into exile; their prosperity cannot last.

In Australia right now, we see the same attitude in those who want to preserve "our way of life" at the expense of the desperate and the destitute. The wealthy and privileged may appear to have a pristine environment, but it will not last. Eventually, illness, violence, the effects of climate change and death will affect us all. Residents who are migrants and refugees can alert us to the realities of injustices in our world, and the obligations we all have to address them. One day, we will all experience hurt and we will all need to change, so let us learn from the stranger about how to survive and grow. From the affluent to the apprentice: this is a Great Reversal.

Psalm 145 follows the theme of justice, and clearly names God as a champion both of the oppressed and the needy.

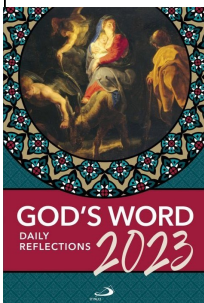

The Letter from St Paul to Timothy; Christians are called to be "saintly and religious, filled with faith and love, patient and gentleness." Yet doesn't mean being subservient, rather, encourage us to fight and witness to the truth: that good must triumph over evil. This is a Great Reversal.

Finally, the Gospel shares this message in the form of a story. Jesus only once names a character in his parables, and this one is Lazarus. He does not say that Lazarus is especially virtuous or 'deserving' or that the rich man is mean or greedy. However, the rich man's fault in the eyes of God is to ignore the suffering that is before him. So surrounded around us are Lazaruses, both in person and in the media. Each one has a name and a story. Now what are you going to do?

We have noticed plants missing or branches cut. Please refrain from taking cuttings or removing plants from our garden and in front of Our Lady of Fatima. If you are interested in a cutting, please contact “the person”. God sees and knows everything!

The Sacrament of First Holy Communion is offered to children who have made their Reconciliation sacrament and are in Yr 3 or above. The Holy Communion will be held on Sunday 6th November at 12:30pm. Forms are available at the back of the church for the enrolment to the sacrament and due by Monday 10th October. Lessons commence on Friday 14th October.

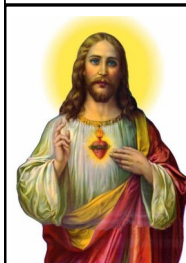

The daily reflection liturgical diary for 2023 is available for order. Price at $19.95. A companion on the journey to pray, to share, to grow in God's love and be nourished by the Word of God. Includes the Bible readings set down for each day, with a reflection. Please write your name on the list at the back of the church if you are interested in purchasing one through Father.

Safeguarding

Safeguarding requirements

Our Parish safeguarding standards are bound by the agreement with the Archdioceses of Sydney; that all volunteers will require a number of conditions in order to volunteer. All volunteers except linen & altar Society (Church cleaners) require a Working With Children Check number (WWC), which is free to volunteers and is applied via Services NSW website.

The Parish must verify each 6 months, each volunteer in order to receive clearance to help, to do this we require the volunteers DOB, WWC number and correct spelling of surname to be all correct. We then have to send the verified and cleared volunteers list to the Archdioceses. WWC check is required in order to volunteer for reading, Eucharist for the sick and for Acolytes. We need your help and co-operation in order to meet these requirements.

The following volunteers need to see Father Macwan to obtain the advice on what details is lacking for the clearance. Please assist and return any details required to Father Macwan or the Parish office. Thank you for your co-operation.

Thi Thanh Huong Dang, Danielle Huet, Thi Hong Dung Nguyen, Kerry Marshall, Louis Pham, Van Le, Sam & Theresa Obeid, Marina Slavez, Angelique Villanueva & Stephanie Assad.

Those who did the online SALT course in early 2019, will require a refresher course. To register for refresher training please register via the link <https://forms.gle/9ebT3voEAfP7P8R9>.

These volunteers may have received an overdue notice through the Parish Office – Mario & Sophia Roche, Ann Foley, Melissa Stephens, Clara Kempers & Sharon Phung. The following volunteers have not filled in a registration & acceptance forms. Carmela Serretore, Sam Obeid, Angelique Villanueva, Stephanie Assad. Please see Father for the forms.

Migrant & Refugee Sunday—this weekend

On the 108th World Day of Migrant and Refugees, Pope Francis says in his Message, “the arrival of Catholic migrants and refugees can energize the ecclesial life of the communities that welcome them.”. So let us realign our goals today, and celebrate those who have come as migrants and refugees. May we help raise up those who are bowed down, so that “the Lord will reign for ever, Zion’s God, from age to age.

Today’s Prayer

Lord, make us bearers of hope, so that where there is darkness, your light may shine, and where there is discouragement, confidence in the future may be reborn. Lord, make us instruments of your justice, so that where there is exclusion, fraternity may flourish, and where there is greed, a spirit of sharing may grow. Lord, make us builders of your Kingdom, together with migrants and refugees and with all who dwell on the peripheries. Lord, let us learn how beautiful it is to live together as brothers and sisters. Amen.

Pope FRANCIS
